“ We are honoured to support the IMU University Conference. This sponsorship underscores our commitment to advancing education, research, and professional development in the medical field.

The IMU Conference is a critical platform for knowledge exchange, innovation, and collaboration among medical professionals, researchers, and students. By investing in such initiatives, we contribute to the growth and advancement of healthcare in our community and beyond.

Public Bank has always valued corporate social responsibility, particularly in areas that profoundly impact society. Our support for educational initiatives like the IMU Conference reflects our dedication to nurturing future leaders and driving excellence within the medical industry. Investing in medical practitioners' professional growth today will lead to a healthier, more resilient community tomorrow.

The theme "One Health: Building Connections, Leading Change" resonates deeply with our values. It highlights the importance of interdisciplinary collaboration and proactive leadership in addressing complex health challenges. This conference will inspire new connections and drive impactful changes in the healthcare sector.

We commend the IMU Conference organisers, participants, and supporters for their dedication and hard work. Their collective efforts in advancing medical knowledge and practices are essential to addressing current and future healthcare challenges. Together, we can make significant strides in improving healthcare outcomes and enhancing the quality of life for all.
