Be part of this inspiring gathering at IMU University's One Health: Building Connections, Leading Change conference. Join us at the IMU Bukit Jalil Campus for a transformative journey, uniting alumni, students and staff, public and corporate sectors from diverse disciplines under the shared vision of promoting holistic approaches to global health challenges.

Through keynote speeches by our esteemed alumni, oral and poster presentations and panel discussions, the conference will delve into emerging health challenges facing our world today. Participants will gain insights into the interconnected nature of these issues and explore innovative strategies for mitigation and adaptation. We eagerly anticipate your presence and participation at this conference!
